

Erasmus+ International Credit Mobility
MOBILITY GRANT FOR RESEARCH FOR NON-EUROPEAN PHD CANDIDATES

Summary:

Project Erasmus+ from European Commission: higher education mobility – International Credit Mobility

Mobility grant for research stay at Liège University for non-European PhD candidate

Number of scholarships, duration and home institutions: see table in annex

Amount Monthly allowance of 850 EUR

Fixed amount for travel fees, according to the distance between the home institution and Belgium.

Period of stay between 01/08/2019 and 31/07/2021

1. Objectives:

The European Commission grants mobility scholarships for non-European PhD students, for a stay at ULiège. This aims at:

- Improving the student's skills, contributing to his/her personal development and assuring a better employability.
- Stimulating the conscience and understanding of other cultures and countries, by giving the participants the opportunity to develop international networks.
- Improving the language skills in a significant way.

2. Eligibility to the grant:

These scholarships are granted in the frame of doctorate thesis developed abroad, to candidates registered in doctorate studies abroad, in one of the institutions listed in the annex I of this call. They are not supposed to be used for stays at the stage of finalizing the thesis.

The stay at ULg must be an international mobility window for the student. At the end of this stay, he must go back to his/her home institution to go on with his/her research.

Candidates who benefit or benefited from scholarship/contract in the frame of Erasmus Mundus Doctorate, Marie Curie, Averroes, are not eligible to this grant.

The allocation of a grant is only possible for candidates coming from a partner institution listed in annex. This list is exhaustive and no transfer towards another institution or country is allowed. The student must be registered by one of the institutions listed.

3. Duration:

The scholarship is granted for a maximum duration of 12 months, according to the budget allocated to each country (see annex). The stay must begin on 01/08/2019 at the earliest. The stay must end at the latest on July 31st 2021.
